

natalie maclean

delicious wine picks & pairings

89

From the cool climate, limestone soils of Gard in the southern French region of Hérault, comes this great value, aromatic white. Pretty honeysuckle nose is followed by pink grapefruit, green apple, strawberries and passion fruit on the palate, with a subtle whiff of flinty minerality. Well rounded, refreshing and versatile it makes a great aperitif and a worthy companion to summer salads and light seafood dishes. Serve at 8 – 10 C.

